O not be deceived. The following brands of White Lead are still made by the "Old Dutch" process of slow corrosion. They are standard, and always 1

Strictly Pure White Lead

The recommendation of

"Anchor." "Shipman," "Armstrong & McKelvy," "Southern. "Beymer-Bauman," Davis-Chambers," "Collier,

"Fahnestock." to you by your merchant is an evidence of his reliability, as he can sell you cheap ready-mixed paints and bogus White Lead and make a larger profit. Many short-sighted dealers do so.

For Colors.—National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tuting Colors, a one-pound can to a 25-pound keg of Lead and mix your own paints. Saves time and annoyance in matching shades, and insures the best paint that it is possible to put on wood.

Send us a postal card and get our book on paints and color-card, free; it will probably save you a good many doilars. NATIONAL LEAD CO.

Chicago Branch, State and Fifteenth Streets, Chicago,

Democratic-Northwest

GEN. Weaver will try to go to Congress from one of the Iowa districts. Congress will have our sympathy. if he succeeds.

"CALICO CHABLEY" FOSTER must be feeling his oats again. He has accepted an invitation to deliver a fourth of July oration.

a laundryman who advertises in the effect this object until a popular up- give this to me and say that it is all you newspapers.

There is little doubt that the real object of the Coxeyites is socialiam. any pretense of trying to conceal it. providing for the free coinage of the In fact, their speakers no longer make They are in the wrong country.

ing to get up a flirtation with the sil- ing this pill the ayes were 168 of whom that I need 50 louis to pay a debt of ver goddess, for campaign use, prob- 124 Were Democaats and 44 Repubably emanates from some Harrison or McKinley man.

nothing and wants the fellow who the Democrats voted for free coinage. three 20 franc pieces. "This louis I will has something to divide with him, The bill was not acted on in the Sen- return to you this evening before dinner and wants a new division every time ate, the Republicans having the mahe gets rid of the proceeds of the jority. previous one.

THE professional rain-makers are hot after the endorsement of Secretary Morton, but, in view of the experiments made under the last administration, none of them are likely to get

THE city counciat of El Paso, Texas free coinage. is the latest body to attempt to reguin El Paso.

SomeBody wants to know why so many republican clubs are being organized in Kentucky? To "work" wealthy republicans in other States, who are gullible enough to put up good money for moonshine. Next!

Ir will be a sorry day for the labor organizations of this country when they pass under control of the socialists. Socialism has nothing in common with honest labor.

Now it is said that the Goulds are going to live in England and compete with W. W. Astor for the extravagant expenditure championship. We can stand it if England can.

THOMAS J. BRADY, of Star route not oriety, has been elected mayor of a Virginia village. The residents of that village may expect either a boom or bankruptcy.

Our forefathers worked with their rifles strapped across their shoulders in order to protect their lives. Are we to see that custom revived?

DEMAGOGUES who are taking advantage of the present condition of affairs in industrial circles to increase the discontent will promptly put for-long as they are allowed to select the

We are firm and honest in our state ment that nothing equals Brant's Balsam for cure of all coughs, colds, throat They struggle bravely for an inch of life or lung troubles, as the many letters we have on file help to prove. A recent one from W. E. Rumpel, Columbia, Mich., says: "I caught a severe cold on my lungs last winter and tried several other remedies which did me no good, until my lungs got in a very bad shape' (opiates always hurt the lungs)" but two bottles of Brant's Balsam cured me. I felt better before had used half a bottle." Get Brant's of Saur & Bals-

THE New York Herald is playing with fire in trying to encourage, for advertising purposes, a religious controversy over Zola's story, now running in a syndicate of America papers including the Herald.

CAPTAIN MAHAN, of the U. S. S. Chicago, should keep his weather eye on himself to see that the "taffy" of royalty, which is being so liberally bestowed upon him, does not give him a bad case of the big-head before returns to the United Scates. -

THE Senate investigating committee would have saved time and annoyance by laying on the table indefinitely the old question concerning the right of Congress to compel a newspaper man to tell the source of confidantial information, and going ahead with the investigation.

How the Magnetic Springs lost a good customer is told by John V. Smith, a prominent Oddfellow, Wooster, who says "I had doctored and docored without benefit, for sleeplessness and nervous rheumatism with pains all over me, until had decided to go to the over he, until had been advised me to try Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer and before had used all the econd bottle my rheumatism and sleeplessness were entirely cured.' Sold in Napoleon by Saur & Balsley.

Silver History.

[Cincinnati Enquirer.] The crime of demonetizing silver was engineered in 1873, when the Republicans had the Presidency, the Senate and the House of Representatives. All the known active participants in the plot were Republicans or When this deed, so secretly wrought, came to light, it was the Democratic party that denounced it and demand-THE Chinese are trying to keep up ed the restoration of the silver dollar rising gave the Democrats the control have.' of the House of Representatives. him," answered the boy. "He looks as leadership of Bland, passed a bill terrors." old silver dollar, and declaring that had time to open my lips, "I have come the same should be a legal tender for to borrow. But this is an exceptional The report that ex-Czar Reed in try- all debts, public and private. On pass- not had a good meal for a week, nor licans. The nays were 53 of whom for I need precisely that amount. Just only 17 were Democrats and 36 Re. one and twenty francs. I have enough to A socialist is a fellow who has publicans. More than seven-eights of the bargain," and he really showed me

> House of Representatives passed another free coinage bill. The ayes Shall I sign that agreement? You know comprised 97 Democrats and 67 Re. that I would not for the world cut off publicans. The nays were 34, of keeping my word. I regret that I can-france each. whom only 10 were Democrats and not tell you exactly what disposition I the balance Republicans. The Democrats thus stood nearly 10 to 1 for When this measure went to the sen-

late by legislation the dressing of ate the Republicans, having the mawomen. It will be strange if its jority, knocked out the vital principal prohibition of the divided skirts does of the bill-namely, the right of the not result in a boom for that article free coinage of silver under the act of 1837-and substituted a provision for the purchase of coinage of not less than two nor more than four millions per month. This was a poor substitute for the sound and health legislation of the House, and it was in no wise improved by the incorporation of the scheme of an international monetary conference, which if effective, could only serve to make our monetary system subordinate to the caprices, interests and combinations of England and other European nations. But even this bill seemed better that the existng law, by virtue of which the use of silver as a money metal was entirely abolished, and accordingly the Democrats accepted it as a step toward restoring the ancient system of free coinage. The international conference ended in smoke, as all had expected, but, though the Secretary of the Treasury purchased and coined only two millions of silver per month this coinage added largely to the prosperity of the people. The previous stock of American gold was more than doubled, instead of being shipped to Europe. Republican Presidents, however, still blocked the way to free silver coinage. Mother Have You a Baby?

plea if the result be serious troublet.

If kissing breeds and spreads disease, as the Board of Health of Orange, N. J., has officially declared, there are lots of fellows hereabouts who are willing to take big chances as If so, get from your druggist to-day for 25

THE BATTLE.

After the battle—peacel But for some men.
The battle lasts till death: all efforts lead.
In these to grief and bitterness; and when Unconquered, though they fall and faint and

Their souls are mettled for some blacker strife These are the hapless ones-or so we deem Our brothers who must either fight or die. Yet he that ever swam an angry stream

And reached firm shore knows more than you If we are joyous in unruffled days— That hope which grows from grief and struggle

They are not hapless. In their heart of hearts They know the deepest faith that life can give. Their living is no playing of old parts. In the wide wisdom of the gods they live,

For they have conquered where the million Their ship of life is stronger for the gale.

—George E. Montgomery in New York Times.

DON'T ACCEPT IMITATIONS.

GROWN WISER.

I used to watch her girlish head To touch her wayward hair and spread

She looked so slight, so innocently I thought at twenty-one or so, With all sufficient self content, I knew so much she did not know.

For men grow old in knowing, taught By evil things as well as good. My life was in the world, I thought, And hers in gentle solitude

But now, at twenty-four, there lies Such wisdom won of joy and pain, Deep shining in her quiet eyes, As I may never more attain.

I might not learn it, if I would, It came to her with motherhood And tiny touch of baby hands. Charles B. Going in Ladies' Home Journal.

A RISE IN TROUSERS.

I was about to leave my office to go out to breakfast when the office boy brought me a leaf torn from the block which is always to be found in the anteroom of newspapers offices and upon which was written, "Louis Demare. I knew the man well. We were fellow townsmen and had come up to Paris together. Fortune had frowned upon him. would like to say that I was out, but the fellow knew what he was doing, the agents of European bankers, coming at such an hour. He would only have to wait on the sidewalk until hunger should drive me out. I resigned my-self to admitting him.

"Show him in, Martin," said I to the boy. "As the gentleman has probably come to borrow, here is some money. If with the procession. Washington has of the fathers. Nothing was done to I ring and ask you to lend me some,

> "You're dead right to be fly with Then it was that the House, under the if he was on his uppers, and his pants is Demare came briskly into the office. "Well, old boy," he said before I case. I am not going to say that I have honor, nor 50 francs to pay for a carriage ride for two. I want just 1 louis, time. As my demand may seem a little extravagant, I will help you out by promising that if I do not bring the On the 5th of November, 1877, the money back before 7 tonight you may instruct your boys to kick me off the premises if I ever show myself here again. am to make of your louis. I can only tell you that I am to use it in a commercial enterprise that is a daisy-you hear, jim dandy!"

The fellow made me laugh in spite of myself. I was completely disarmed. I gave him his louis, and I truly believe should have invited him to breakfast with me if he had not been so meanly iressed. But with such trousers it was an impossibility.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the boy announced, with a show of respect: "Mr. Demare."

"Faithful to my agreement," said he gayly. "Here is your yellow boy. As I know you are busy, I will go, but not without thanking you most heartily." "Was your 'jim dandy' a success?" I inquired.

'Decidedly,'' said he, showing me a andful of money. "Allow me to compliment you," I said. "You must have been playing the "I am not foolish enough for that he replied. I noticed he wore new trousers, which must have cost him $4 or $5. That explained the increased respect of the office boy. Surely the fellow had not wasted his day.

The next day he brought me an article on some of our city institutions. It was interesting, and I accepted it. When he went out, I noticed that he wore new trousers and different ones from those he had worn the day before. Two days later he called for the pay for his article. He came up to shake hands with me on going away. Mechanically glanced at his trousers-he had on a third pair, and they were perfectly new.

I met him often in the succeeding days in the office and outside, and on every occasion he wore a fresh pair of trousers Curiously enough, he always wore the same coat, which was shabby in the extreme. I gradually contracted the habit of looking at men's trousers. After a vague examination, lasting for several successive days, of the nether garments of all the employees about the office from the proofreaders down to the janitors, I discovered to my stupefaction that none of these persons of slender incomes wore the same pair of trousers two days in succession. Some of them even changed twice a day. I became convinced that I was the victim of a special hallucination, and I resolved carefully to conceal my malady, as it would have rendered me extremely ridiculous. Still I felt that it would affect me greatly, as it would induce melancholy and become a mono-

Still the trousers filed before my eyes. They were of all colors and of all shapes. Some fitted their wearers, others were a little too small or a little too large. They were evidently ready made goods, but what an enormous quantity of tronsers my diseased imagination seemed to have seen!

I seriously thought of making my will; but, persuaded of my infirmity, I knew it would be worthless and would only lead to exposure. With the greatest secrecy I consulted a specialist—not a specialist in trousers, but in mental disorders. He showed no surprise at this form of mental disorder, talked of neurasthenia, overwork and so on, and

I began to feel that my days were numbered. Every one remarked the change in my health. One of the contributors brought me a curious article, it being a history of trousers, past and present. I threw the article into the wastebasket and came near breaking with the unlucky author.

Just as I was about to arrange my business for a long vacation, having de cided to make a sea voyage and travel in foreign lands, where my nightmare would not appear to haunt me-the h'ghlands of Scotland, for instance, or in central Africa-the office boy-he wore a fresh pair of trousers-ushered Demare into my presence with the most profound deference without even anonneing him.

At the first glance I saw that he wore "hitherto unpublished" pair of trousers. Of course I expected that, but what I considered as a sudden aggravation of my malady was that he wore a new coat. If coats were going to mix themselves with trousers in my poor sick brain, there was nothing left for me but to arrange the details of my funeral. With a haggard face, I pointed to a

"Old man," said he, "knowing that you take an interest in me, I have come to tell you good news. I am engaged permanently as financial editor of The Gazette. So we are coworkers. Congrat-

I murmured some feeble words of fe-

"I owe you some explanation of my prosperity in the last few months," he added. "You remember the day I borrowed the louis from you and returned it the same evening? I told you at the time it was for a daisy financial stroke. Now that my self interest does not compel me to keep the professional secret, I will tell you all. It is a pretty byplay in metropolitan life. No, my boy, I have not assassinated any old woman who was incumbered with a rent roll. I have not been adopted by an elderly heiress. I have sold no political secret nor pillaged an embassy. I have simply been a dealer in trousers.

At the last word I bounded to my feet. There was my nightmare again.
"Calm yourself," said he, "and lis-

"The day before I made the demand upon your purse I happened to be present at the first day's sale at auction of an immense stock of new goods from a bankrupt custom made clothing concern. The programme for the succeeding days was the sale of 10,000 pairs of trousers. There were few at the sale, the necessity of taking the goods by lots, on account the great quantity, shutting out workmen and the class of persons who wear such garments. I remarked that the source of so many benefits by not | the trousers in lots of 10 cost about 2

'By dire experience I know that the pawnbroker lends upward of 5 francs on a pair of trousers in good condition. The thing to do was plain enough to be seen. With your louis I bid off a lot of 10. Soon after I hastened to the pawnshop, where I offered three pairs. I encountered an obstacle the first thing. They do not lend on unworn garments I argued my case with such eloquence, representing that I had worn the trou sers, but that I was very careful of my clothes, that I gained my point. Of course I could prove that I was not a tailor seeking to dispose of my stock. I took two other lots of 10 at intervals during the day, keeping the tenth pair for myself. I received over a dollar apiece for them. So you see it was a pretty good day's transaction. "The next day I bid off two lots, and profiting by my experience I passed the day and part of the night in wearing the trousers, putting on one pair after another. I can assure you it was back breaking. I then conceived the idea of having others wear them for me, and timidly at first, but soon boldly enough, I lent the garments day by day to your boys, to your clerks and to many others, asking nothing in return but discretion. I told them that I needed to have actual proof of their quality, as they were made in great numbers in my shop for shipment to South America. As my business increased I perfected my methods. I employed agents to dispose of the trousers. I bought as many as 60 some

"All went well so long as the source of my prosperity remained undiscovered. One day I scented danger. One of my agents found out by the mark on the buttons where the goods came from, and he bought a lot of 10. I did not hesitate

"I hunted up the receivers of the stock. I told them that there were 3,000 pairs of trousers unsold; that the 7,000 pairs already sold (I had bought 5,000) had overstocked the buyer, and hence the present price could not hold. It would be wiser to sell them all at once. In conclusion, I offered them 3,000 francs for the lot of 8,000. The deal was closed. and so all attempts at competition were effectually prevented. At the same time I laid myself liable to the law which punishes monopolies.

"Now it is all over with. The pawnshops, glutted with trousers, rebelled and threatened my agents with arrest. Eght thousand of my garments rest on their shelves, so I did not complain. In the end I was obliged to carry my business into the provinces. Each pair of trousers has brought me on an average a net of $1; total, $8,000. I will lend it to you if you want to borrow.

"Now that it is not necessary for me to affect poverty, I have bought me a coat and some other furnishings. I still have left about 100 pairs of trousers. I shall give some in charity, and I have already fitted out your entire establishment. You must notice how I am re spected around here.

'Now, old man, I shall be most happy to send you a pair made to fit you per fectly of the richest fabric. You have only to say the word."

It is needless to add that my cure was instantaneous and complete. — Translated For San Prancisco Argonaut From the French of M. Champimont.

CONDENSED NEWS.

& Collection of Interesting Items on Various Subjects, Especially Prepared For

New York dectors are experimenting on corpses with pistols to see effect on brain,

The delegation of Osage Indians which has been in Washington two weeks, returned to the reservation in Oklahoma. Springfield (Mo.) Coxeyites have peti-tioned President Cleveland to pardon General Coxey.

Hereafter the employes of the Rock Island carshops will work only five days in a week and only eight hours a day. All streams flowing into Puget sound are over their banks and all the surroundng towns are inundated and business suspended. Three miles of the North Pacific railroad tracks have been washed away. Charles A. Spofford, who declined to turn over certain books in his possession for the ise of the Northern Pacific railroad invesigation, has been adjudged guilty of conempt of court by Judge Lacombe of the United States circuit court at New York, and ordered to pay a fine of $250, Charles H. Groth, formerly secretary of the Firemen's Relief association of Mil-waukee, was arrested in New York as an embezzler and fugitive from justice. John Kane was fatally shot by Ernest Wolfe at Palatka, Fia., in an A. P. A.

East Atchison, Mo., is threatened with xtinction by the Missouri river eating the land away. The seventeenth annual commencement of the Ohio State university will be held Father Kolaszewski of Cleveland declares that a plot exists to blow him up with dynamite A greater number of Memorial day services were held Sunday throughout the country than ever before in advance of the Deaths. Dr. Jerome Allen, the well known eduator, died at his home in Brooklyn, aged 64 years. At Tacoma, Major W. T. Gillespie, a well known mining man, and Ar-nold Bernsberger, a stationary engineer, were killed by a cave-in of the bluffs. Valentine Blatz, the millionaire brewer. who owns large manufacturing establish-ments at Milwaukee, St. Paul and elsewhere, died at the Hotel Ryan, St. Paul, at 10:30 Saturday evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Van Tripp of Bowling Green fell dead in prison at Chicago, where she went to visit her husband, arrested for

There was a general fight at Robinson's circus at Wayne C. H., W. Va., in which ight men were dangerously injured. Mr. and Mrs. John Rife were drowned near Iron Hill Furnace, Ky., by the falling of a small bridge.

A freight train was wrecked on the Texas Central railroad. John Elliott, engineer, and Ar bur Woodall, brakeman, were instantly killed At Cannelton, Ind., William H. Artman was sentenced to life imprisonment for wife murder. Flagman O'Connor was instantly killed at Lima, O., while signaling a Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton train. Defaulter Cronkhite was convicted at Williamsport, Ind., and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Personal. President Cleveland is said to have bought a large interest in a gold mine in Colorsdo. Daniel Boyles was fatally injured by Norman stallion at Winchester Friday. Brakeman Stukesbury was fatally shot by tramps whom he ordered off a train An orphan boy adopted six years ago by Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Ramasatty of Omaha has fallen beir to half a million dollars. Fires. Fire destroyed two stores and a saloon at Lexington, Ind. Loss $8,000.

CONGRESS.

SENATE-Mr. Teller moved as a test vote that the tariff bill lay on the table. It was rejected—nays 38, yeas 28. Senator Gor-man defended the tariff bill in a long speech.
House—The house fillbustered all day on the legislative appropriation bill. Thursday. SENATE-Senator Kyle's resolution declaring against any attempt to restore the queen in Hawaii came up, but went over to make room for the tariff business. House—Committee on public buildings decided to erect the new Chicago postoffice on the site of the old. The appropriation will be $4,000,000. Friday. SENATE—Senator Kyle's Hawaiian resolution was considered again for half an hour in the senate, but no action taken. The tariff bill was taken up and a number of items passed upon, and the senate ad-of items passed upon, and the senate adjourned at 5.

House—Went into committee of the whole for consideration of private bills. Afternoon spent in discussing a group of 87 war claims for cotton. The only business transacted during the day was the passage of a bill for the relief of Thomas B. Reed.

Saturday. SENATE—Mr. Shoup and Mr. Hill addressed the senate on the tariff bill. Mr. Hill's motion to place lead ore on the free list was defeated—yeas, 3; nays, 52. Mills, Hill and Irby were the only affirmative votes. Murphy voted against Hill's motion.

HOUSE—Among the private bills agreed to in the house Saturday was one intro-duced by Mr. Geary of California granting certain rights over Lime Point military reservation in California for the purpose of ing to the village of Dearborn, Mich., cer-tain lands known as "Dearborn arsenal" for village purposes, and a bill to authorize the Missouri River Power company to con-struct a dam across the Missouri river in Montana. The state bank tax repeal was

SENATE—The senate put in the day dis-ussing the wood schedule, principally the umber feature. HOUSE-It was District of Columbia day n the house and the state bank men gay

SENATE—Senator Kyle agreed to waive his resolution if a vote could be taken on the Turpie resolution. Senator Vest of-fered a substitute for the latter resolution, which carried. The tariff bill was taken up and Senator Proctor of Verment and Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota ad-dressed the senate.

ressed the senate.

House—The house voted to hold no ser HOUSE—The house voted to hold no session Decoration day. The senate bill was passed granting right of way to the Albany and Astoria Railroad company through the Grande Ronde Indian reservation, Oregon. After some routine morning business, the bill to repeal the state bank tax was taken up, and Mr. Cox of Tennessee opened the debate for the friends of unconstitutional repeal.

One Battle He Lost,

There is one battle which General M. M. Trumbull did not win. It was fought in a down town restaurant. He entered the restaurant and was very obsequiously ushered to a seat by an ebony waiter, who was clearly impressed with the general's imposing appearance. The darky's countenance registered several degrees lower when General Trumbull gave his order:

"Coffee and rolls." "Yes, sah," was the waiter's disap pointed reply. He had looked for a big order and did not get it. When he returned with the coffee, the general looked at it a moment in supreme disgust. The fluid had slopped down the side of the cup and half filled the sancer.

"I don't want that coffee. Bring me some in decent shape," ordered the gen-

"Dat all de kin o' coffee you gwine t' git, " replied the waiter. 'Look here!' said the general sharply, "I fought four years to give liberty to the likes of you, and I'm carrying three bullets in my body now. Get me some decent coffee.

With this telling the general began to unfold his newspaper, considering the matter settled.

"Yes, sah! You done it! You done it. sah! But dat's all de coffee you gwine to git heah!" obdurately replied the

And the general was obliged to take his ungrateful medicine in silence.-Chicago Tribune. While in Topeka last March, E. T. Barber prominent newspaper man of La Cygne, Kan., was taken with cholera morbus very severely. The night clerk at the hotel wher he was stopping happened to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhose Remedy and gave him three doses which relieved him and he thinks saved his life. Every family should keep this remedy in their nome at all times. No one can tell how soon it may be needed. It costs but a trifle and may be the means of saving much suffering and perhaps the life of som a member of the family. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by D. J. Humphrey, Napoleon, O.

There are so many forms of dyspepsia that it is almost impossible to give the foods most suitable without a knowledge of each case. Dyspepsia usually is caused by one of two things-either defective muscular action or defective se cretion of gastric juice. When it can be ascertained where the digestion is at fault, then nearly absolute directions can be given in regard to diet. In the majority of cases the articles given in the following list can be taken, but often certain ones of these disagree: Thin vegetable soups, raw oysters, poached or soft boiled eggs, good brown bread, gluten bread, boiled rice, oatmeal, spinach, cresses, celery, lettuce, string beans, asparagus, oranges, peaches, pears, baked apples and grapes. Granula, farinose and barley crystals are especially good forms of cereals for the dyspeptic. As much depends upon the preparation as upon the selection of the foods.-New York World.

Newark, O., May 29.—Addis Lewis, aged 24, received a life sentence yesterday afternoon under the habitual criminal act. Lewis also got three years for larceny and broke partly down under the Winchester, O., May 29.—The annual reunion of Company D, Twenty-fourth O. V. I., took place here yesterday. The company was the first to leave this county and only 16 of them are living. An elegant dinner was served then at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Tom E

Jail in Default of Bail.

CLEVELAND, May 28.—Zgrabik, the nan who beat his wife, until she afterward died of her injuries, and nearly scalped his mother-in-law with an old rusty sword, was found hiding 15 miles in the country. He is in jail in default of $1,000 bond.

Deboin.

Willimantic * Star Thread With your name and address. In return you will receive, free of any charge, a beautiful set of paper doll dresses in colors, for girls and boys, and an instructive book on thread and sewing. Willimantic Spool Cotton is best for machine sewing or hand sewing. Ask the dealer for it. WILLIMANTIC THREAD CO., WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

STRAW MATTINGS $4 per Roll of 40 Yards. Matting Rugs, 3X6 50c.

Detached figure Linen Warp Mattings in various designs and colorings.

Special styles for halls and stairs.

Japanese Rugs Large variety just received in ten sizes. Lowest prices.

LACES AND CURTAINS, DRAPERIES; call and examine. Prompt attention given mail orders.

STERLING & CO., 408 and 410 Summit St. TOLEDO.

F, Manager.

man 22 - 3

S. P. SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., whose constitution was completely broken down, is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He writes:

"For eight years, I was, most of the time, a great sufferer from constipation, kidney trouble, and indigestion, so that my constitution seemed to be completely broken down. I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and, in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 129 pounds; I now can brag of 159 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."

Aver's Sarsaparilla Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

NOTICE TO

Cures others, will cure you

POTICE is hereby given that in accordance with the provisions of the Bebee Law the Henry county Board of Examiners will hold examinations for teachers in the basement of the Court House in Napoleon, Ohio, on the following intes, to-wit: 2d and 4th Saturdays of September do do do December. do February do do do do March. do do April. do do May. do do June

Examinations will commence at 9 o'clock a. m Evidence of good moral characters will be required of all candidates; that evidence to be a personal knowledge of the Examiners concerning the applicant, or certificates of good moral character from some reliable source.

MRS. SUE WELSTEAD, CHAS. E. REYNOLDS, W. M. WARD,

CURES RISING BREAST :

"MOTHER'S FRIEND" is the greatest blessing ever offered child-bearing woman. I have been a mild-wife for many years, and in each case where "Mother's Friend" had been used it has where "Mother's Friend" had been used it has accomplished wonders and relieved much suffering. It is the best remedy for rising of the breast known, and worth the price for that alone.

Mrs. M. M. BRUSTER, Montgomery, Ala.

I can tell all expectant mothers if they will use a few bottles of Mother's Friend they will go through the ordeal without any pain and suffering.

MBS. MAY BRANHAM.

Argusville, N. D.

Used Mother's Friend before birth of my eighth child. Will never cease its praise.

MBS. J. F. MOORE, Colusa, Cal.

Sent by express, charges prepaid, on receipt of price, $1.50 per bottle. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO.,

ATLANTA, GA

Sold by all druggists.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.02 year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, canabina business to show the triumph of Scientific Medicine. Nothing has ever been produced toequal or compare with it as a CURATIVE and HEALING APPLICATION. It has been used 40 years and always affords relief and always gives satisfaction.

HUMPHREYS' This Precious Ointment is the

Cures PILES or HEMORRHOIDS—External or Internal, Blind or Bleeding—Itching and Burning; Cracks or Fissures; Fistula in Ano; Worms of the Rectum. The relief is imm diate—the cure certain WITCH HAZEL OIL Cures Burns, Scalds and Ulceration and Contraction from Burns. The relief is instant. Cures Boils, Hot Tumors, Ulcers, Fistulas, Old Sores, Itching Eruptions, Scurfy or Scald Head. It is infallible.

Price, 50 Cents. Trial size, 25 Cents. Sold by Druggists, or sent post-paid on receipt of price, HURPHREYS'RED, CO., 111 & 118 WHREN GL., REW YORK. THE PILE OINTMENT

Cures Inflamed or Caked Breasts and Sore Nipples. It is invaluable.

JUST RECEIVED a large stock of Letter Heads